About Guardamar del Segura:

Guardamar del Segura is a beautiful town located on the coast of the province of Alicante, in the sunny region of Valencia. Guardamar del Segura is known for its beautiful beaches. The fine sand and the clear water of the sea are striking, which means that the beaches of Guardamar del Segura have been awarded the Blue Flag for many years for their excellent quality.

Another must-visit spot in Guardamar del Segura is the Parc Reina Sofia, located in the center of the town. This park is a great location to relax. The park is very beautifully landscaped with nice ponds and all kinds of different animals. In addition, there are several hiking trails, benches and a large playground, making the park a perfect location to enjoy a picnic with the whole family.

Another attraction of Guardamar del Segura are the dunes of the city (Parque Alfonso XIII). For those who enjoy walking and cycling, a visit to the dunes is definitely recommended. Here you can enjoy the peaceful surroundings and untouched nature.

In short, Guardamar del Segura is a beautiful town that has a lot to offer for residents and tourists alike. Whether you are looking for sun, sea, sand, nature or culture, Guardamar del Segura is the perfect choice.
