If you are looking for a property that you want to renovate entirely to your own taste, this is an opportunity. After all, this property does offer opportunities. The garage under the house is very spacious and can be used for many different purposes. The house upstairs also really needs some work but also offers a lot of space and thus possibilities.

The location of the house can certainly be called good. All amenities are within walking distance and the house is located in a nice and neat street.
